Foreword

The events taking place in the school year 1941-42 will always burn brightly on the pages of future history books. It is a space of time never to be forgotten; but we, the members of the production staff of the 1942 Whisperer, wish the years 1941-42 to bring back pleasant memories, too. This Annual is the results of our best efforts.

If we have made you smile, we have then accomplished our goal. It is our wish that you will enjoy this annual as much as we have enjoyed producing it for you.

KENNETH V. GIFFIN

In Memoriam

TO A GIRL WHO IS REMEMBERED AND ADMIRED FOR HER KINDNESS AND GENEROSITY. ALTHOUGH SHE WAS NOT PERMITTED TO FINISH SCHOOL WITH THE REST OF THE CLASS OF 1942, WE ARE PROUD TO CALL HER A FELLOW SENIOR.

Mr. F. H. Close
Superintendent

How long will the war last? The question is difficult to answer; but, the speed of our production of the necessary implements of war is a vital factor. When we have an overwhelming superiority of fighter planes, bombers, tanks, and operators, the war will be on its last legs, and the dove of peace will be hovering near.

We are proud of those who represent our community in the armed forces of our country. Many are graduates of the Wadsworth High School, or attended school here. We have a feeling of pride in a vocational setup that is giving a preparation for real service in our war industries.

Many of our graduates are well prepared to take an important part in the production of planes, tanks, and other war equipment. They are employed in factories throughout this industrial section and are doing much toward winning the war.

Vocational agriculture, drafting, printing, woodworking, home economics, and commercial training have, also, definite places vocationally in the whole war program.

The electrically lighted V at the front entrance of the school building symbolizes the spirit and effort of Wadsworth High School in doing the most possible to bring the war to a successful close.

OUR HIGH SCHOOL WILL CARRY ON

"American education today plays a role of world-wide importance. The resistance to be hurled in this and future generations against the menace of dictatorship in its proposed reconquest of the world will stem chiefly from the strength and the clarity of thinking of the American citizen. If schools are to help in defense of the democratic ideal, their purposes must be defined in terms of that ideal, and their activities must be resolutely directed toward it."

When the schools closed Friday evening, December 5, they had many purposes and they followed many roads to achieve those purposes. When the Pearl Harbor attack occurred and the schools opened on Monday, December 8, they had just one dominant purpose—complete, intelligent, and enthusiastic co-operation in war effort. The very existence of free schools anywhere in the world depends upon the achievement of that policy.

It is already clear that many educational adaptations are required. Some aspects of education will need to be strengthened and extended. Other aspects, perhaps some very important ones in times of peace, may be curtailed or postponed in order that all educational efforts may be applied at the points of greatest need.

In view of the emergency today, the secondary schools need to (1) kindle in the minds of men and women the need to accept great responsibilities; (2) redouble in their efforts to promote in every practicable way the better health and nutrition and the greater physical vigor of our population; (3) intensify their efforts to train both youth and adults for war industries and services; (4) take steps to insure the regular organized study and discussion of the issues, aims, and progress of the war and the peace; (5) take special effort to preserve our American heritage; (6) and inculcate in the minds of young and old alike the desire to want for other peoples priceless privileges we enjoy.

Whispering Leaves

No. 1, Vol. 1 WADSWORTH, OHIO March 1, 1952

Whether it's cold or whether it's hot, we'll have weather, whether or not.

Miss Helen Auble sustained a broken toe last week while coming down the old wooden stairs in the Alderfer block. She had been in to call on the tenants, in her social service duties. Miss Auble was fortunate not to receive more severe injuries as she fell from the top step and did not regain her balance until she hit the cement walk in front of the building. She was happy after her fall because, as she put it, "I was coming down anyhow."

Miss Mary Drollinger, a former Wadsworth resident, has recently been transferred from the faculty of Stevens College to that of Bryn Mawr. Miss Drollinger has accepted the position of dean of women, and when questioned about her new position she said, "How does my hair look?"

Visiting Wadsworth, his home town, is Roy Earley, manager of Joe Louis, Jr. When asked about young Joe's chance in the ring he said, "How do you think I got these yeller shoes?"

Resting their bones in the county jail are Marlin Emig, Alton Frase, and Warren Gardner. This gang was caught chewing stolen gum. When questioned about their guilt they replied, "Chattanooga Chew Chew."

The first applicant for the new project promoted by the Wadsworth-Akron Bus lines is Miss Margaret Holben. The project is to have hostesses for the busses like those of air lines.

Although it is impossible to tell their destination, Andrew Kelley and Leon Keener, co-pilots on the trans-Atlantic Clipper, have been transferred to another route.

Louis LaPaglia, Chester Mehl, Dale Lowe, and Joe Murin have been awarded fireman's medals for unusual coolness and bravery during the big conflagration which leveled the Botts Apartments. These boys saved the lives of thirty-five children who had been locked in their homes while their parents attended a benefit bridge.

Henry Alexander, a missionary from China, will speak at the Akron Armory Saturday night. His topic will be, "China Opens Her Doors to Missions." Mr. Alexander has been in China for over seven years.

New plans have been given to Mayor Walter Bates for the proposed new swimming pool. Mr. Glen Westenbarger, a Silver Creek architect, delivered the plans, and when asked about them he said, "They are extremely extraordinary." When Mayor Bates was questioned about the plans he replied, "Gittin' kind o' snoopy, ain't ya?"

Reunited for the first time in many years are several of Wadsworth's trained nurses. During the last years of the second World War these nurses served on many battle fields, and their experiences will be the main topic for discussion tonight as they are being entertained at the country home of Miss Phyllis Scott, proprietor of the famous Scott's Bakery located in downtown Wadsworth. The nurses, who will enjoy the hospitality of Miss Scott, are Grace Blough and Betty Coolman, who served in Australia; Dorris Leaf and Jo Ann Frye from Siberia; Maxine Gerberich and Betty Clifford from Africa; and Margaret MacMichael from China.

Miss Mary Ellen Anderson, professor of Latin at Wooster College, will be the guest speaker at the municipal Latin Club meeting tomorrow night.

Miss Isabelle Allen was duly honored last evening as she arrived at the new Union Station. She and her skating troupe were met by the city band with Marian Grill as director and Arnold Peterson as drum major. Miss Allen, which is her stage name, and her troupe will appear at the High Street arena Friday night. In her troupe are two Wadsworthites, Mary Bertalan and Paul Miller, who will do a Romeo and Juliet scene on the ice.

A fire at the Park Tavern Hotel yesterday turned out to be a four alarm fire. The cause of the fire has not been determined. Miss Sally Spake, proprietor of the hotel, said she smelled smoke in the kitchen and one of the upstairs bedrooms at the same time, tee hee! Frances Rossman and Alice Rogers, cooks at the hotel, said the fire may have been caused by an overheated skillet.

Somewhat relieved by the fire are the Misses Lois Mae Spice and Jean Swain. These two have been working very hard to keep the hotel clean. They are taking advantage of their forced vacation and are attending the convention of the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Chamber Maids to be held at Dayton, Ohio. Leaving for a conference also are the janitors David Van Duzer and Benny White. Both of these men have been working steady for two weeks and they feel they deserve a vacation. They are going to New York City.

Society News

Ruhama Nestor is leaving by plane today for Pensacola. Poised pertly atop her luggage Miss Nestor told your reporter, "I shall miss you-all, really I will."

Gizella Taylor will arrive at Cleveland next month with the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York. She will sing the title role in Jack Redinger's newest opera, "The Daughter of the Regiment."

Leaving tonight for New York is stylist Frances Walker. She has been at home for a short vacation and is now leaving for New York to be present when her dresses are reviewed at the Saes Eighth Avenue Style Show. Modeling Miss Walker's clothes are the Misses Dorothy McMullen and Lena Smith.

Mr. Donald E. Favinger is leaving for Hollywood tomorrow. He received a five-year contract yesterday from Walt Disney, under the provisions of which he will double for Dopey, the seventh dwarf.

Miss Ruth Arwood was hostess to three of her friends last Tuesday. The Misses Mary Doyle, Maxine Coppage, and Gloria Gilligan were her guests. These four girls comprise a club of women who have been divorced at least twice. They recommend a club as this for women who have become disheartened by false lovers.

Miss Barbara Graham left this afternoon for Philadelphia where she will attend a morticians' convention.

The Misses Charlotte McElwee and Maxine Mosier are leaving for Florida Saturday evening. Both ladies are going as representatives of the U. S. O. conference to be held in Tallahassee. While there they hope to gain new ideas as to how to entertain soldiers at the local headquarters of the U. S. O. These ladies were instrumental in organizing this branch hoping to find soldiers who were as lonesome as they are.

News From Here and Abroad

California—Fitch Band Wagon honors the U. S. Marines by having as their guest artist Jack Redinger and his J. A. Rettes. Featured with the J. A. Rettes are Patty Welch (known to some of us as Mrs. Redinger), famous blues singer; Howard Fraley, noted lyric tenor, and his fiddle; and William Parkinson, the one and only Boogie-Woogie Gent.

Akron—Featured attraction at the Armory tonight is the ladies wrestling bout. Miss Marjorie Pike will be pitted against the famous Lady X. In local circles it is suspected that this Lady X is Ruth Garman.

Radio News of the Week

The headliner for radio this evening will be Lilyan Dietz at 7:30 over WADS and the affiliated stations of the Red and White network. She will read her famous modern version of "Little Red Riding Hood." Her new sponsors are the manufacturers of the new reclining typewriters, made especially for use while lying in bed.

Transferring from the Johnson's Wax program to the Red Skelton hour, John Drollinger's soothing voice will be heard as master of ceremonies at 8.

Famed psychology professor at Notre Dame, Dr. D. E. Fiely will be heard over WTAM Sunday night at 10:15. Dr. Fiely expects to visit Wadsworth while on his Eastern trip. He wonders if Humbolt Avenue is warmer now.

Wadsworth will be represented at Hobby Lobby tonight. Miss Mary Elizabeth Alderfer, combined surgical nurse, minister, and daredevil pilot, is to be interviewed. Miss Alderfer has been on every fighting continent during the past eight years, and no doubt will have many interesting thrillers to relate in her interview. Who of us, ten years ago, thought that Miss Alderfer would be so great a success in so short a time?

Two new additions have been made to the radio waves this month. Miss Beulah Kelley makes men's mouths water with her special Southern recipes for Aunt Jemima's pancake flour. We still wonder how many letters she has in her alphabet. The other consists of a group of girls with beautifully blending voices under the directorship of Dwenna Van Duzer. She has picked the cream of Wadsworth's singing girls to take the lead in the vocal orchestra. They are Esther Smiraldo, Iona Yoder, Virginia Wuchter, Norma Presley, Phoebe Mills, Ruth Kreider, and Martha Hinkel.

A new lullaby lady has been put on the WTAM staff. Miss Ann King Lucke's soothing voice will lull many a nervous child to sleep after a hard day's play. Many Wadsworthites will remember Miss Lucke's mysterious and pleasant mannerism. Her new sponsor will be the makers of Pretty Pink teething rings and rattles, a profitable business in America since the complete destruction of Japan.

Buenos Aires—Promoting diplomatic relations with the South American republics is the newly appointed secretary of foreign relations, Mr. Carlyle Freeborn. Mr. Freeborn and his wife, the former Rita Gairing, expect to spend about five weeks in South America. They were accompanied by their maid.

GRIZZLY GRAPPLERS AFTER THEIR 100TH STRAIGHT

Coach Kenny Cartwright and his Wadsworth High School wrestling team, last year's national champs, meet their toughest opponent of the season when they tangle with John Hay of Cleveland Thursday at 5 o'clock.

Wadsworth ran its string of wins to 99 last week by defeating Shadyside, 33-3, and will attempt to make it 100 straight on Thursday.

Says Coach Cartwright, "If we win Thursday we should again take the national championship at the tournament at Ann Arbor, Michigan. You will remember that Russel Doan, who really put wrestling on the map at Wadsworth, is head wrestling coach of the Wolverines."

Coach Cartwright's younger brother, "Butch," who has been national A. A. U. champion for ten years, has finally turned professional, so he will be able to make more than just expenses. He will referee the bouts with John Hay. He was a member of the first Wadsworth team to win a state championship back in 1942. Says Butch, "I remember the night we made it 25 straight, but I never thought it would run up to a hundred."

WINGS DOWN OSHKOSH

Led by the sterling playing of four western cagers, Fluke Harris, Dick Allen, Bob Danals, and Jack Golz, the Goodyear Wing-foots defeated Oshkosh yesterday by a score of 64-41, and placed themselves four games ahead of their nearest league rivals, the Cleveland Hot Sots.

Golz led the attack with 19 points, Allen followed with 16, Danals 14, and Harris with 12. The score at the half was 41 to 8, Oshkosh. The ferocity of the second period is shown by the fact that Oshkosh was held scoreless. Their ace foul shot was not given one chance.

The Inquiring Reporter

By ED BATES

Question of the week: "WHY FOR?"

Norman Birkbeck, street cleaner: "Today's question is an intelligent choice and I feel it is an important one. 'Why for?' often pops up in the minds of thinking people and we must always be ready with our knives and forks in case a flood should come."

Eugene Cope, married man, that's all: "I feel all of us are correct in our reasoning of 'Why for.' After all, if we never did go, why for? At the same time if we never stayed home, why for?"

Laverne Dutt, machinist at O. I. C.: "In discussing this trying question, one must always keep a clear head. 'Why for' is something that will affect us all at some particular time, and if we eat apples now the polar bears might be black next August at 3:32 M."

Mrs. Russell Hewitt, nee Martha Hoff, housewife: "My husband and my five children often ask me that very question. I guess the youngest would, too, but she can't talk yet. 'Why for' has been clearly illustrated in many editorials. Coming from the lips of children these thoughts are gems of paradise. We must all agree that 'Why for' is more important than 'When for' or 'A house divided against itself cannot stand'."

George Hornyak, ham radio operator: "When Jesse James stated that men were 'Why foring' and liked it, because they needed to, I got up in arms—ah, yes! they were my mother's arms; but maybe women look better in green and blue than we do in purple shoes. The snowflakes are bigger here anyhow when it rains."

Don Johnson in inquiring into the past of our inquiring reporter asked Mr. Bates why he wanted to be a reporter and Ed said, "Ever since I was a reporter for W. H. S. athletics years ago, 'Why for' has been preying on my mind. 'Why for' the wrestling team was state champion, and 'Why for' the football team and basketball team won one game in a row." Don Johnson has written many inspiring editorials for our paper and we are proud to have him on our staff.

We, the Class of 1942, of Central High School, of the City of Wadsworth, in the County of Medina and in the State of Ohio, being of full age and of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, and hereby revoke all wills by us heretofore made.

Item 1: All the property, real and personal, of every kind and description, wheresoever situated, which we may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of our decease, we give, bequeath, and devise to the underclassmen, absolutely and in fee simple.

Item 2: We make, nominate, and appoint the underclassmen to be the executors, to compound, to compromise, to settle, to adjust all claims and demands in favor of or against our estates, and to sell, at private or public sale, at such prices and upon such terms of credit or otherwise as they may deem best, the whole or any part of our real or personal property, and to execute, acknowledge, and deliver deeds and other proper instruments of conveyance thereof to the purchaser, or purchasers. No purchaser from our executors need see to the application of the purchase money to or for the purposes of the trust but the receipt of our executors shall be a complete discharge and acquittance therefor. We request that the bond required of our executors shall be the living of sane and sober lives.
